

Portuguese winemaking celebrated as Port & Madeira collect three Best in Show at the Decanter World Wine Awards 2020

After a challenging year for the global wine industry, there's finally reason to raise a glass!

22nd September 2020: There's perhaps never been a time the global wine industry has been so hard hit, but the world's largest and most influential wine competition is giving reason to celebrate with the release of its 2020 results. After completing judging under strict Covid safety guidelines that included innovations such as proximity lanyards and bespoke disposable spittoons, the Decanter World Wine Awards has today announced its 2020 winners.

Now in its 17th year, the 2020 competition has seen a rise in successes from lesser-known wine producing regions such as the South & Eastern Mediterranean and the Balkans, which showcased their impressive quality and value for money. Classic regions in France, Italy, Spain, the USA, and Australia once again performed well.

During the judging month, 116 expert wine judges including 37 Masters of Wine and nine Master Sommeliers, tasted and debated the merits of 16,518 wines from 56 countries. Only a total of 50, just 0.3% of all wines entered, were awarded the highly sought-after accolade of "Best in Show", of which the fortified wines of Port & Madeira collected three of these: Justino's Terrantez 50 Years Old from Madeira and two Ports, Cálem 1961 and Vista Alegre 40 Year Old Tawny.

The two red wines that were awarded Best in Show were both made with signature grape varieties of Portugal. The Secret Spot Field Blend 2016 produced from an undisclosed field blend, picked up the first, with Carmim Monsaraz Reserva 2017 awarded Value Best in Show for a blend of Alicante Bouschet, Trincadeira & Touriga Nacional.

Portugal collected the joint most Value Platinum medals with two awarded for the Herdade dos Lagos HDL 2018 and Herdade do Peso Trinca Bolotas Alicante Bouschet-Touriga Nacional-Aragonez 2018, as Portugal continues to be recognised for producing interesting, eclectic styles that offer excellent quality and value at all price points.

Other successes from Portugal include Rui Roboredo Madeira Quinta da Pedra Escrita 2017 and Quinta da Pedra Alta Pedra a Pedra 2017, both from the Douro which both picked up a Platinum medal. Portugal was also one of only six countries outside of France to pick up a Platinum medal for a sparkling wine, with Caves Transmontanas Vértice Bruto 2012.

Andrew Jefford, Co-Chair says, "The Decanter World Wine Awards really helps producers to raise their profile internationally. It can do the same for wine-producing regions and nations, too. Our judging system - including re-tasting of all Golds, with possible promotion to Platinum

- is something we are very proud of. We explain it as often as we can. So, when consumers see a DWWA sticker on a bottle, be it Platinum, Gold, Silver or Bronze, they can be reassured that the wine in question has been judged by regional experts and specialists before receiving its medal. We discuss, we argue, we fight it out...that's all part of the judging fun. Even with social distancing! But that's also how you get the results which have made the DWWA an international wine benchmark."

After much uncertainty on whether the awards could take place this year, Decanter was meticulous in its approach and innovation to ensure the judging went ahead, introducing strict safety measures that were put in place, including temperature checks on the door, PPE for all judges and staff, disposable spittoons with antibacterial powder that solidifies with liquid and is later incinerated with other hazardous waste, proximity tags worn on lanyards that vibrate when you are less than two metres from another person, and isolated tasting areas with designated facilities.

Co-Chair Sarah Jane Evans MW comments, "The competition has been terrific, it has been a perfect atmosphere to taste and judge this year. After months of lockdown and uncertainty everyone has been delighted to be back again, working together, sharing ideas and thoughts, and above all, focused on picking out the great wines from this year. There have been some wonderful discoveries. As ever the Best in Show day was tough, narrowing down to 50 top wines".

Notes to Editors

Portugal was awarded 455 medals in total, including five Best in Show, 11 Platinum, 25 Gold, 181 Silver and 233 Bronze. Port & Madeira collected 23% of the total medals awarded, including three of the five Best in Show accolades.

Launched in 2004, the Decanter World Wine Awards is the world's largest and most influential wine competition.

The 2020 awards introduced new innovations, including bespoke disposable spittoons and proximity lanyards, to ensure Covid safety guidelines were adhered to in Decanter's first socially distanced judging month, held at the Future Plc offices in Canary Wharf. A panel of 116 expert wine judges blind-tasted 16,518 wines from 56 countries over four consecutive weeks in August.

Only a total of 50 wines were awarded the highly sought-after accolade of "Best in Show", and the four-week tasting culminated in 178 Platinum, 537 Gold, 5,234 Silver and 7,508 Bronze medals being given out.
