- 6.6. Entries that arrive after the deadline dates or that are delivered to the Decanter office in London will not be accepted.
- 6.7. Decanter recommends the use of its Shipping Agent, depending on the country from which the Entry will be sent. This will be a more cost effective method and will help ensure the safe arrival of the Entry. If Entrant is unable to use the Shipping Agent, Decanter recommends that Entrant uses a shipper that allows Entrant to track its delivery to confirm that its Entry has arrived.
- 6.8. It is Entrant's responsibility to contact the Shipping Agent or its courier company to confirm the delivery deadline, address and documentation required.
- 6.9. Entrant will be responsible for payment of all delivery charges, duties, taxes, insurances and storage. All such charges must be paid by Entrant in advance of receipt of the Entry by Decanter. - 6.12. Entries must be Delivered Duty Paid (DDP). Instructions to complete the import declaration should be given to Entrant's forwarder/courier company by Entrant. Entrant must choose 'shipper accept all charges' on the documentation provided by Entrant's courier company. Entrants are responsible for any fees related to the import declaration. Entries cannot be accepted by our Logistic Partner if the charges associated with shipping have not been paid. Any penalty and additional cost incurred from the non-compliance of declaration requirement in the UK will be borne by Entrant. The Logistic Partner does not have an excise number. The Logistic Partner's VAT number is: GB 619 3804 30.
- 6.13. It is Entrant's responsibility to ensure that Entries arrive in good condition.

- 6.14. Entrant must complete and affix the delivery label, which can be downloaded by Entrant in its online account after submission of the Entry Form, on the outside of the box. Entrant must indicate the name of its company and the Entry on the outside of the box to assist the Logistic Partner in correctly identifying the Entry when it arrives.
- 6.15. Entrant will receive an automated email confirmation when all samples for all its Entries have been received at the Decanter Warehouse and checked by Decanter. Entrants can also check the status of its delivery by logging in to its online account.
- 6.16. Decanter will notify Entrant in case of discrepancies between the Entry received and the Entry in Entrant's online account. If Decanter does not hear from Entrant within the deadline, Decanter will use the information on the Entry label on the bottles received by Decanter and update the Entry in the Decanter system accordingly. Once the Entries are judged, no changes can be made to the Entry details.
- 6.17. Hand delivery in accordance with Clause 6.3.3 is only available to exhibitors at the fair where such Entry is submitted, and only Entries that are registered will be accepted by Decanter.
- 6.18. The Entries will be transported at Entrant's risk and it will be Entrant's responsibility to arrange adequate insurance. Decanter and the Logistic Partner will not be liable for any loss or damage to the Entries whatsoever whilst the Entries are in the possession of Entrant, the Shipping Agent, or at any stage during the delivery process.

- 6.21. Upon completion of the Competition, any unopened Entries will be destroyed or sold to raise money for charities selected by Decanter. Leftover Entries will not be returned or available for collection.

All winning Entries will be published according to Decanter's format which is 'Producer, Wine Name, Sub Region, Region, Country, Vintage'.
