

BRITISH DRESSAGE TESTS - TIME CHART 2016/17

Below is a chart showing the maximum number of Competitors per class which a Judge can reasonably be asked to judge, working on the recommended limit of four hours judging, which should include a break of at least half an hour.

British Dressage recommends that after judging 10 horses, judges be allowed a 15 minute break. This will need to be adjusted e.g. 26 competitors - 12 & 14 or 13 & 13. The time allowed for each test includes approximately two minutes per rider in excess of the actual time taken to ride the test.
